A ROLE OF TEACHER OF LEADER IS IN EDUCATIONAL PROCESS PROFESS

The aim of this article consists in that, on the basis of analysis of present scientific historical sources, official records, facts and available statistical data to form a system idea about nature and character of functioning of statistical idea of followers of prominent economist E.G. Liberman. All of them brought in ponderable contribution to development business of education in Ukraine.

Pleiades of academic statisticians, continuing the way of E.G. Liberman to modern economic reforms and business education in Ukraine and other countries of the world can take such scientists of the Kharkov national university as Z.L. Zhitnitskiy (1911-1987), V.V. Spivakova (1924-1995), I.V. Semenyak (1935-2011), V.M. Selivanov (1929-2013) and A.V. Sivokon (1931- 2017) [1, pp. 15-18].

Liberman Evsej Grigorjevich (1897-1981) was born in Podolsk gybernia, with top marks finished gymnasium and Kiev University, faculty of law.

In 1962 professor Liberman E.G. wrote a resonant article «Plan, profit, bonus», which gave way to all-country discussion about changes in economic mechanism and finally led to economic reform of 1965. The concept, which laid in the basis of suggested changes, was a reduction of the volume of directive targets, definition of standards' for long-lasting, increasing the role of such indicators as profit and production efficiency.

The name of Professor Liberman E.G. and ideas of the reform were very popular abroad, particularly in the USA. His portrait was published on the cover of «Time» magazine, many foreign economists and journalists came to Kharkov University especially to meet Professor Liberman E.G.

He lectured in our University, faculty of economics, statistic and accounting department from 1963 until 1981. In 1970 Professor Liberman E.G. published a book «Economic methods of increasing the efficiency of social production», which was reprinted in many countries, as well as a number of other works. He always supported the idea of integration of science and teaching and implemented it in his practical work. A powerful school of talented researchers was formed around Professor Liberman E.G. He was a great authority in his field and much respected among professionals.

Zhitnitskiy Zinovij Lazarevich (1911-1987) was born in Krasnograd, Kharkov region. Graduated from Kharkov Institute of Planning, his major-industrial economy and planning. From 1953 until 1974 Zhitnitskiy Z.L. permanently headed statistics and accounting department at economic faculty of Kharkov University. Being a person of extensive knowledge in his field, possessing wisdom and tolerance as leader and organizer, being a talented lecturer Zinovij Lazarevich 19 in succession was unanimously elected the Head of statistics and accounting department.

Spivakova Valentina Vasiljevna (1924-1995) was born in Moscow, in a family of a doctor. In 1941 she entered Moscow Institute of Finance and Credit, but because of the war, finished only one year and left it for work. In the 1950-ies, in connection with marriage, moved to Kharkov and became a student of Kharkov Institute of Soviet Trade.

Spivakova V.V., one of the first, in 1966 defended her dissertation on this topic – Indicator of Profitability. Together with her colleges she wrote several articles and educational aids on up – to – dates topics of statistic investigation. Her whole working life was connected with the faculty, Spivakova V.V. was respected by her colleagues and students.

Semenyak Inna Vladimirovna (1935-2011) was born in Voronezh in a family of employees. In 1958 she graduated from Kharkov State University, faculty of economics and worked as economist at leading machine-building factories of Kharkov. In 1970 Semenyak I.V. came to work at Kharkov University, the department of statistics and accounting. Her career began from a postgraduate student, under scientific guidance of professor Liberman E.G. (1970-1973 years), followed by the defense of Doctor' s dissertation in 1988 years and soon after– the rank of Professor of economic sciences at the statistics and accounting department.

As a member of Specialized Council for Doctoral and Candidates' dissertations she prepared 10 Candidates of economic sciences: Kushchenko-Berezanj E.I., Marsh O.V., Bondarenko N.V., Gogitidze G.I., Kataev L.V., Oberemok S.V., Rahman M.S., Mangushev D.V., Mozgovaja G.V. Today all of them work successfully in higher educational system of the Ukraine.

Selivanov Vladimir Michajlovich (1929-2013) was born in Krasnograd region, in a peasants' family. In 1953 Selivanov V.M. graduated from the University with top marks, his major – «Planning of national economy» and, as a postgraduate student continued further his studies at statistics and accounting department.

From 1985 to 2003 Selivanov V.M. headed department of statistics and accounting. Due to high professional qualities and organizer's talent Selivanov V.M. was one of distinguished members in a row of prominent scientists and lecturers of Kharkov V.N. Karazsin National University.

Sivokon Antonina Vasiljevna (1931-2017) was born in Kharkov, in workers' family. With excellent marks she finished school and Credit and Accounting technical College. In 1955 Sivokon was enrolled at Kharkov University, the faculty of economics. In 1964 Antonina Vasiljevna began to work as a full-time lecturer at the faculty of economics in Kharkov University. From 1973 till 1985 Sivokon A.V. successfully headed the department of statistics and accounting of faculty of economics and managed to create a friendly and efficient team of teachers, highly estimated by the Uni.'s authorities.

Sivokon A.V. devoted much attention to the training of highly-qualified professionals for the Kharkov regional department of statistics.

Generalized directions of statistical researches of teachers of department of statistics under the direction of E.G. Libermana presented in a table 1:
